...we are living, working, playing, savoring each second. Now is the time; this is the place. We wait for no man. These are our moments---ours to expend in the best of ways---an exuberant dash through the meadow, a cooling swim, a walk through the rain on a green spring day. Moments of sorrow, moments of inexplicable joy, impulsively we cast our fears aside, later recalling our responsibilities and obligations.

We are young and tireless, able to pass the days in electric activity with a boundless enthusiasm for all we do. This is our life, FROM MOMENT TO MOMENT

Student Council Emphasises Self Government

The lifeblood of a school is its flow of activities; the coordinating unit of these is the Student Council. Participation of the students in self-government was the goal which was stressed throughout the year.

The Student Council has participated in such activities as the National Foundation March of Dimes, the San Antonio Safety Council, and, in the summer, the Texas Association of Student Councils Workshop. The success of our Council has been the result of its enthusiasm and hard work.

Members of the Dragon's Tale Staff spent long, tedious hours in producing a good school paper. They reported, edited and typed many pages each month. The work was hard and hours long, but it was worth the effort when the page came out!

Some of the staff have attended various press conferences during the year. Among these conferences were the Texas State Press Association Conference held at Texas Women's University in Denton and the U. I. L. Press Conference held at the University of Texas in Austin.

Lois Massingill, Karolyn Vogt and Mrs. Goldberg, Sponsor, edit some copy for an edition of the Dragon's Tale.

Library Provides Tools of Knowledge

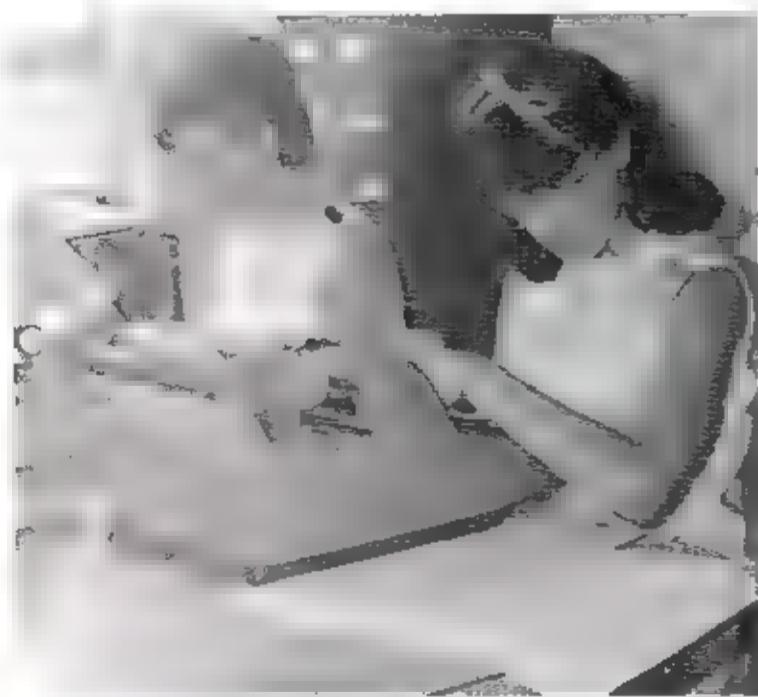

Librarian for the Junior and Senior High Schools,
Mrs. Ferol Todd.

Under the supervision of the Librarian, assistants in this division of the school gain valuable knowledge of books and the operation of a library.

The library has managed a paperback book store in the interest of providing supplemental reading for students, augmenting the curriculum needs.

Library orientation was provided at the beginning of the year for all English and History classes to acquaint students and faculty with the materials available. Classes were scheduled for particular days in the library, and special study groups were arranged.

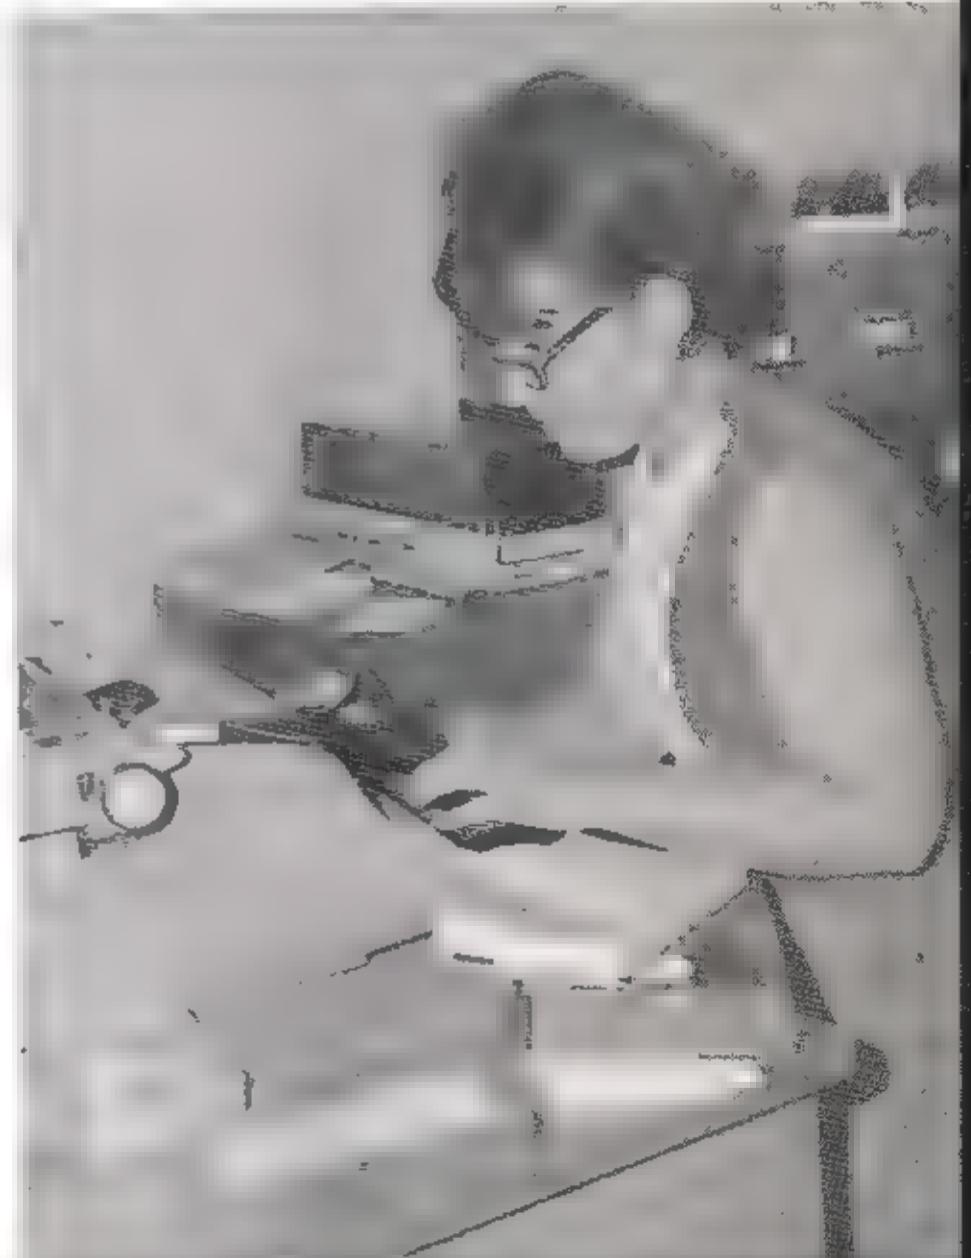

Many books, visual aid materials, records, and magazines have been added to the library this year.

Nancy Smith cataloged many books during the year for the library. Laurie Pestello and Katolyn Vogt have been able assistants in the library all year.

Staff of Dragonnaire find long hours and hard work are necessary to make deadlines on copy and layout. Publication dates come all too soon, and pictures have to be made, advertisements sold, copy written, while originality prevails! Loyalty to the annual becomes the prerequisite for good staff membership. The hours and commitment to the job help produce a good yearbook, which often is the greatest reward the staff receives

Editor and Assistant Editor, Ted Robinson and Janet Bitner, planned the yearbook for this year back during the summer months.

Ted Robinson has served as Editor and head Photographer with the assistance of Ronald Curry and Bill Leifeste.

Quill and Scroll Provides Goal for Journalists

Quill and Scroll, International Honor Society for high school journalists, is an organization for ambitious young people interested in any phase of journalistic work.

The Southwest Chapter of this organization provides opportunities for students to gain experience in their chosen field. The production of an annual literary magazine affords hard-working students a chance to study and learn the techniques of journalism.

Quill and Scroll members assisted with the compilation and publication of Southwest's literary magazine, "Le Mot Juste."

Officers. Karolyn Vogt, Secretary-Treasurer, Ted Robinson, Vice-President, Janet Birner, President; Mrs. Ferol Todd, Sponsor.

Drama Club Presents Play Festival

The drama department has done very well under the excellent, capable direction of Mrs. Byrom. Under her leadership, students have refined their speech, movements, and expressions to produce outstanding amateur plays. During the year, a "One-Act Play Festival" was organized and presented to both the students and their parents.

Helen Reyes "makes-up" George Staff for "Antic Spring."

Thelma Bailey and Cathy Lucas, of "To Burn A Witch", display their acting abilities.

Mrs. Jennie Byrom has been the Drama Director this year and Mr. Billy Wheat has assisted as Co-director.

Southwest Dragon Band, under the direction of Mr. Michael Pagonis, skillfully displayed their various talents during the past year.

Parades were an important part of the band's curriculum, illustrated by participation in the Lytle, Poteet, Fiesta, and Rodeo parades. In addition to the regional marching and solo and ensemble contest, the band and choir presented a Christmas program at the State Hospital, as well as for the student body of Southwest.

To open the spring season on a joyous note, Elementary 2 band joined with the Dragon Band for "A Musical Tour Around the World," presented in concert at Elementary 2. This provided the band with practice for the regional concert contest. The band closed the season with the concert and sight-reading contest held at Fort Sam Houston High School.

Cheerleaders Arouse Enthusiasm, Pride,

Cheers of excitement and tears of disappointment characterized the atmosphere of our 1966-67 football season. Cheerleaders Janet Bitner, Connie Aldridge and Sue Eppler, did their best to raise the spirit of Southwest fans. Our cheerleaders spent a significant amount of time and effort making signs, rehearsing routines and practicing cheers. They were often seen before game time proudly wrapping the goal posts with Green and White.

Tremendous credit must be given to the success of the cheerleaders in their combined effort to lead and improve our school spirit. The time spent, tears shed, and work accomplished have been compensated by their success as cheerleaders of 1966-67.

Entertaining fans with dance routines at football games, performing in pep rallies, and marching in parades were a few activities which constituted the world of Southwest's Drill Team. Varied and imaginative routines made half-time at football games colorful and exceptionally enjoyable. When parade season arrived, the Drill Team became very active with practice marches and gala parades. Some of the parades in which they participated in were the Somerset Parade, Rodeo Parade, Fiesta Parade, and the Poteet Strawberry Festival.

Future Teachers are often asked to substitute for teachers who are ill or absent unexpectedly from the classroom. FTA members attend the Future Teachers' Convention. This year it was held in San Antonio, and a large group of Southwest representatives attended.

Future teachers enjoy the different taste of French food.

SPORTS

Charlie Neumann looks for six points.

The End of An Era...Southwest Wins!

At the beginning of the season our coaches and the team had hopes of winning seven games. Because of the Dragons' previous record (34 straight losses), many people thought this an absurd prospect, but the boys knew that this year would yield victory.

Coach McBirnie feels that key injuries kept us from achieving the goal. As many as ten starting players were out at one time due to injuries. In spite of these hindrances, our offensive team really moved the ball in every game, and the defensive team did a fine job.

Southwest ended the season with a pleasing 4-6 record, our best since 1961.

Five boys on our great team made all district or all district mention. The all district winners were Charlie Neumann, Johnny Tejeda and Raul Gonzales. All district honorable mentions were Eugene Koehler and Raymond Krueger.

Homecoming '66 was truly a special one; it was significant of a new joy and pride that is not our school, born from the happiness of victory. Success was the earmark of the evening, a successful dinner, a successful game, and finally the success of the dance. Homecoming '66 will not be soon forgotten.

Desire and determination were the key words to the Dragonettes success in the '66-'67 season. The girls got off to an unpromising start, losing several of their early games, but their desire to win paid off.

Their constant improvement was evidenced by the fact that the girls did not lose a single District game and went on to take the Bi-District title by defeating Devine by twelve points.

As the girls traveled to Kingsville for the Regional Tournament, nerves were taut and dispositions on edge! Losing their first game to Ganado put the girls out of the competition for Regional Championship. Determined that they should not be entirely unsuccessful, the Dragonettes returned that night to defeat Lyford, winning third in the Regional Tournament.

This was a rebuilding season which saw Southwest starting one freshman, three sophomores, and two juniors throughout most of the year. The attitude and effort extended by them promises to bring a large improvement in the development of future Southwest teams.

Miss Mary Ann Svoboda, B. S., Southwest
Texas State College.

Southwest's commercial program plays an important part in the curriculum of the high school. It includes two years of typing, book-keeping, and shorthand.

These studies provide valuable training in areas that will meet the needs of students in personal and vocational use.

Potential Writers Gain Experience Through Journalism

This year the Journalism Department took on the full responsibility of putting out the Dragon's Tale. This will prove to be invaluable experience for those students who plan to go on and make a career of newspaper work. The Journalism class also provides excellent training in good, comprehensive writing.

Homemaking Adds Spice to Curriculum

Mrs. Betty Jo Jungmichael, B.S.,
Southwest Texas State College.

Homemaking at Southwest is an interesting lively course. The girls learn much about the art of good housekeeping, as well as acquiring much knowledge of cooking and sewing. Many field trips aid in demonstrating to the classes just how products are processed and reach us, the consumer.

A new first in the homemaking classes came about this year when the Ag boys decided to brave the homemaking rooms for a week while the homemaking girls headed for the Ag building for a new kind of learning experience.

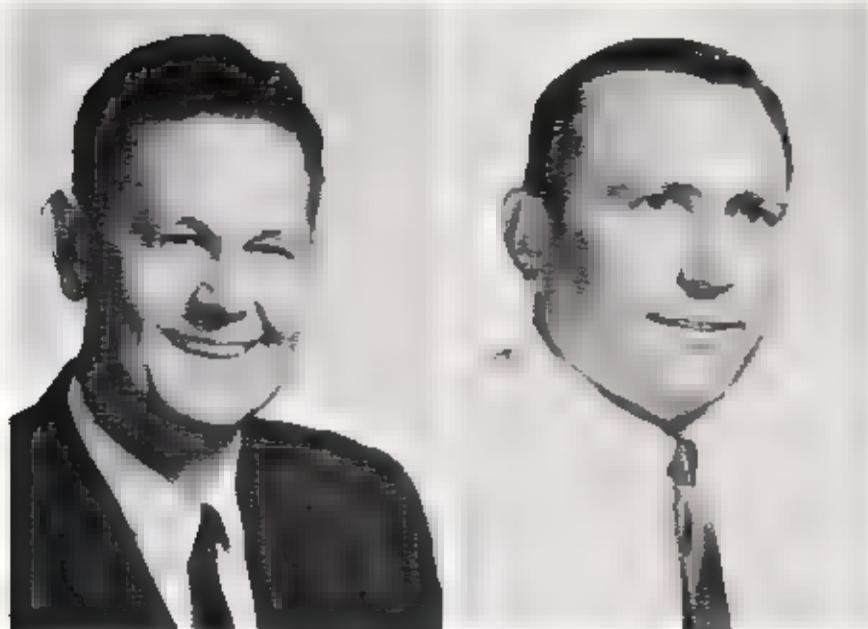

Members of the Student Council gather around the buffet table at a dinner prepared for them by the Homemaking Department.

As the population of our great nation grows, so does our need for food and methods of producing this food in greater quantities. The Southwest program of Agriculture includes the latest ideas in crop raising, care of stock, and in many electrical fields.

Tomorrow's farms depend largely upon ideas which are taught to those boys enrolled in today's Agriculture classes.

Teachers and School Personnel Participate in School Activities

The Southwest Teachers' Association, organized in 1962 in affiliation with the Texas State Teachers' Association and the National Education Association, has presented a variety of programs. Among their activities was a special visit from Dr. Billy Jo Wilkinson, President of the Alamo District, who spoke on the legislative program. Other highlights were the teachers' banquet and installation of new officers held at Cap'n Jim's Restaurant in May.

Serious Seniors Face the Future

Emotions rise as Janet Bitner, Steve Allen, and Senior Sponsor, Miss Svoboda, await the processional. Helen Janecek assists Laura Pestello and Karolyn Vogt in signing the guest book for Student Council reception after Baccalaureate. Graduates anxiously wait for strains of the recessional -- and then part in real life.

Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises took on new meaning for Southwest seniors when they were faced with the reality of the immediate future. Their thoughts turned toward American Ideals, College Careers and Later Life," as stressed in speeches made by the top three students in the graduation class.

Moments to remember are special times. Through friendship the fondest recollections, both past and present, arouse in us the sentiment and cherished experiences we hold dear up to and beyond graduation time.

Long afternoons working out in the gym, publishing the paper or annual, practicing on the football or baseball field, sitting in front of the school drinking cokes, smiling faces - contentment among friends. These things we shall recall as the years pass by.

Initiative of the Juniors could be seen clearly in their combined efforts to provide the Seniors with a banquet and prom, climaxing the social events of the year. They sponsored post game dances, Junior-Senior Powder-Puff Football game, and arranged various effective enterprises to augment their budget.

Juniors were responsible for the One Act Play Festival held in February in preparation for the UIL Contest.

Junior High Exemplify Leadership Qualities

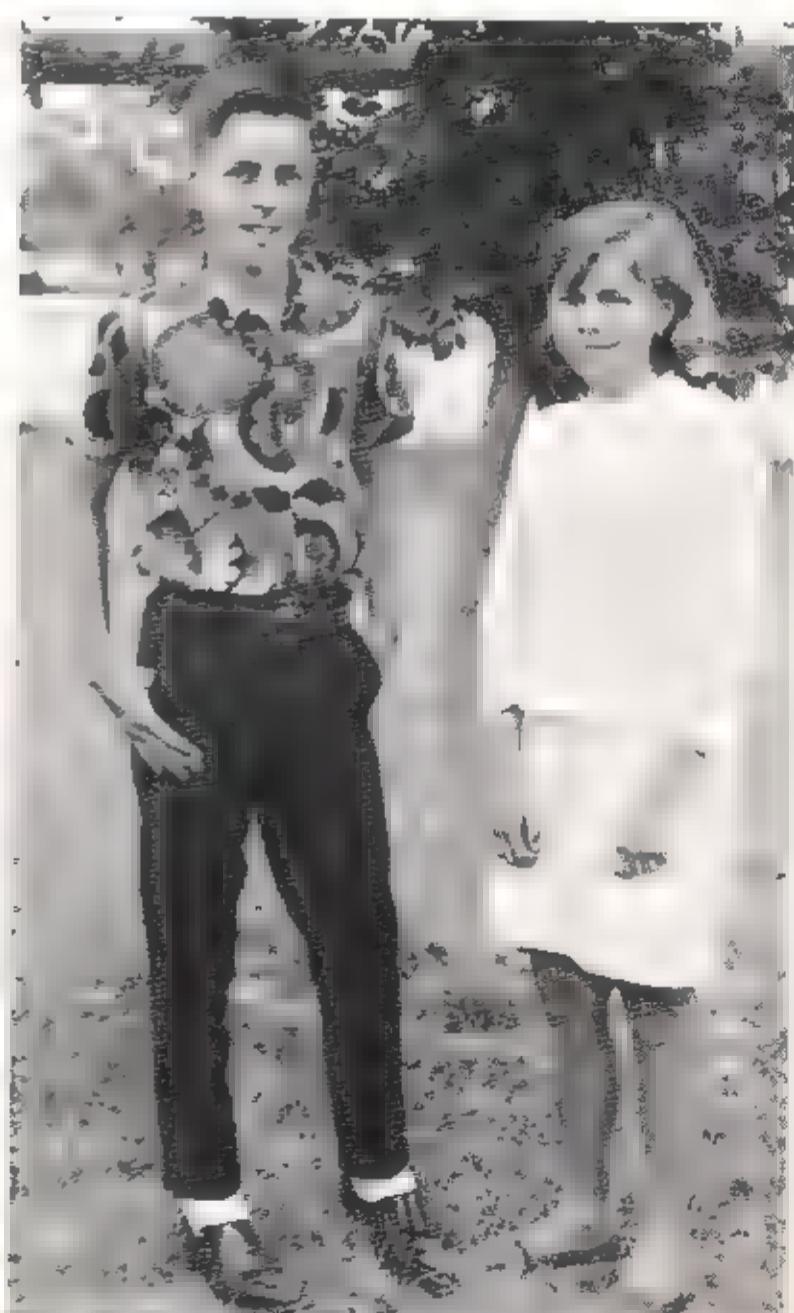

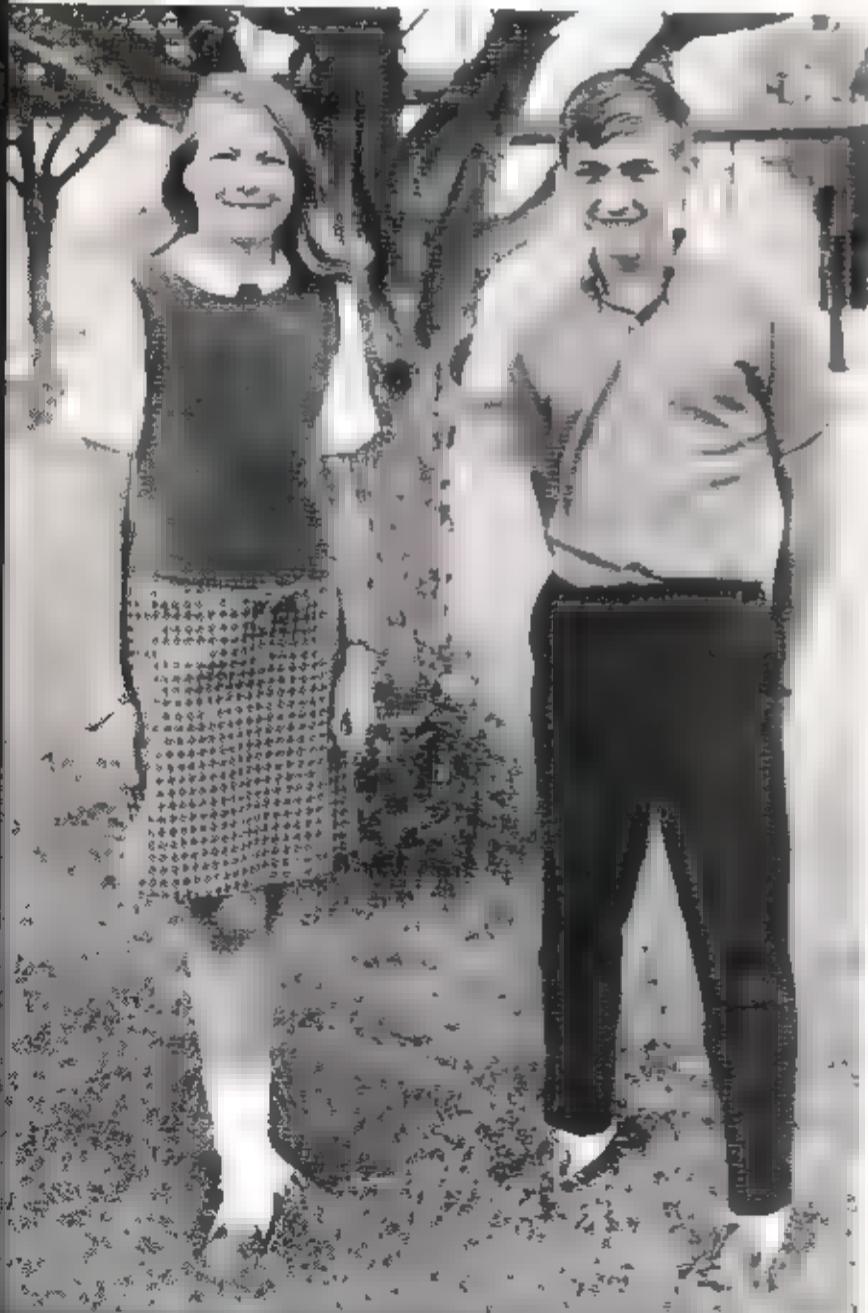

Looking forward to the end of the school year, Eighth Grade Officers worked diligently in preparing arrangements for promotion exercises. Their hard work produced successful results in class elections and other activities.

Ann Smith and John Pestello were selected by their classmates as Eighth Grade Favorites. Winning the approbation of their friends, they represented their fellow students well as Class Favorites.

Mark Neumann and Karen Costa, receiving the commendation of their associates, were chosen as Seventh Grade Favorites. Their affable personalities qualify them for the distinction of Class Favorites.

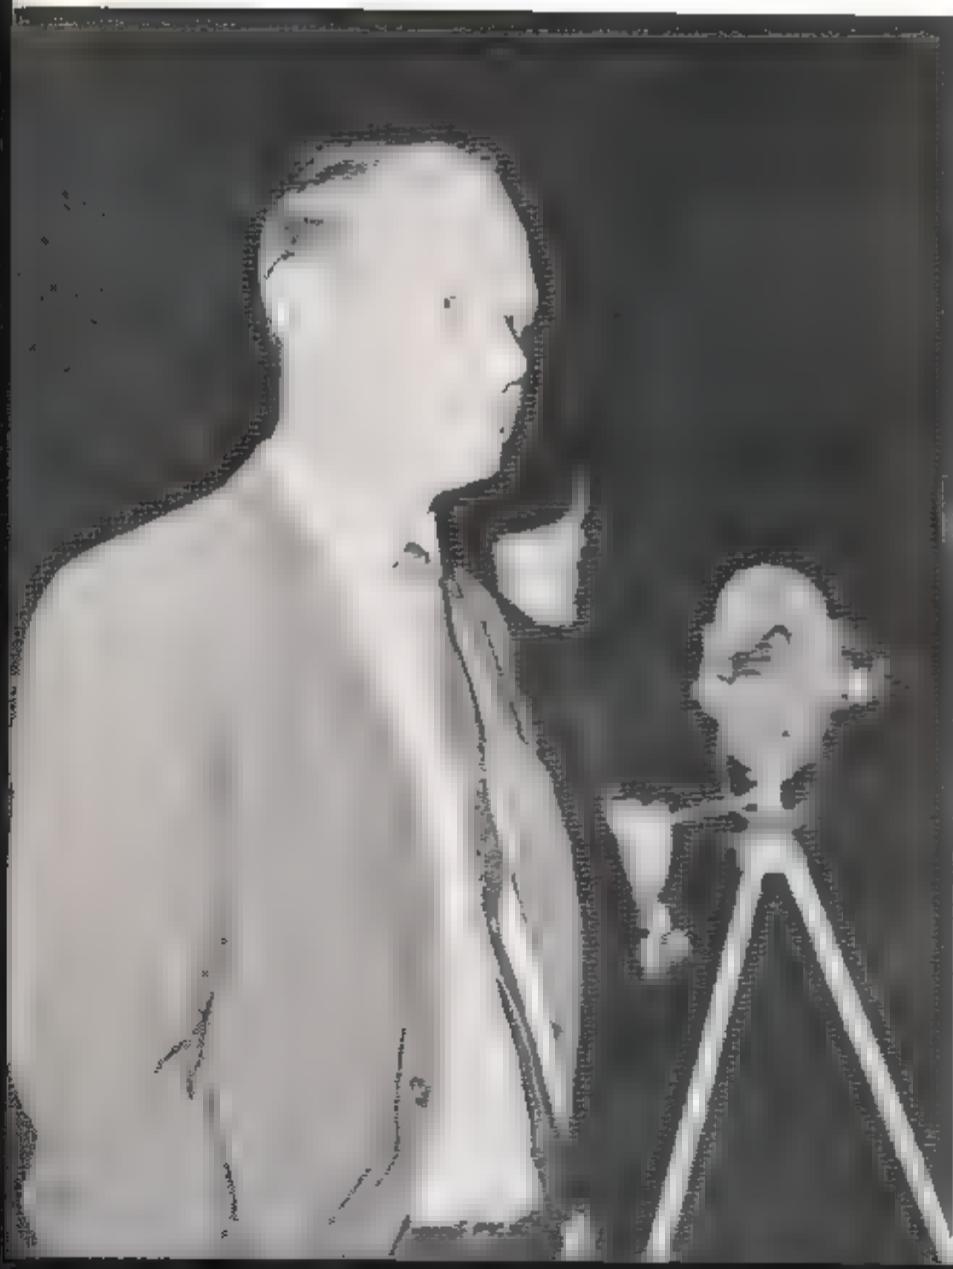

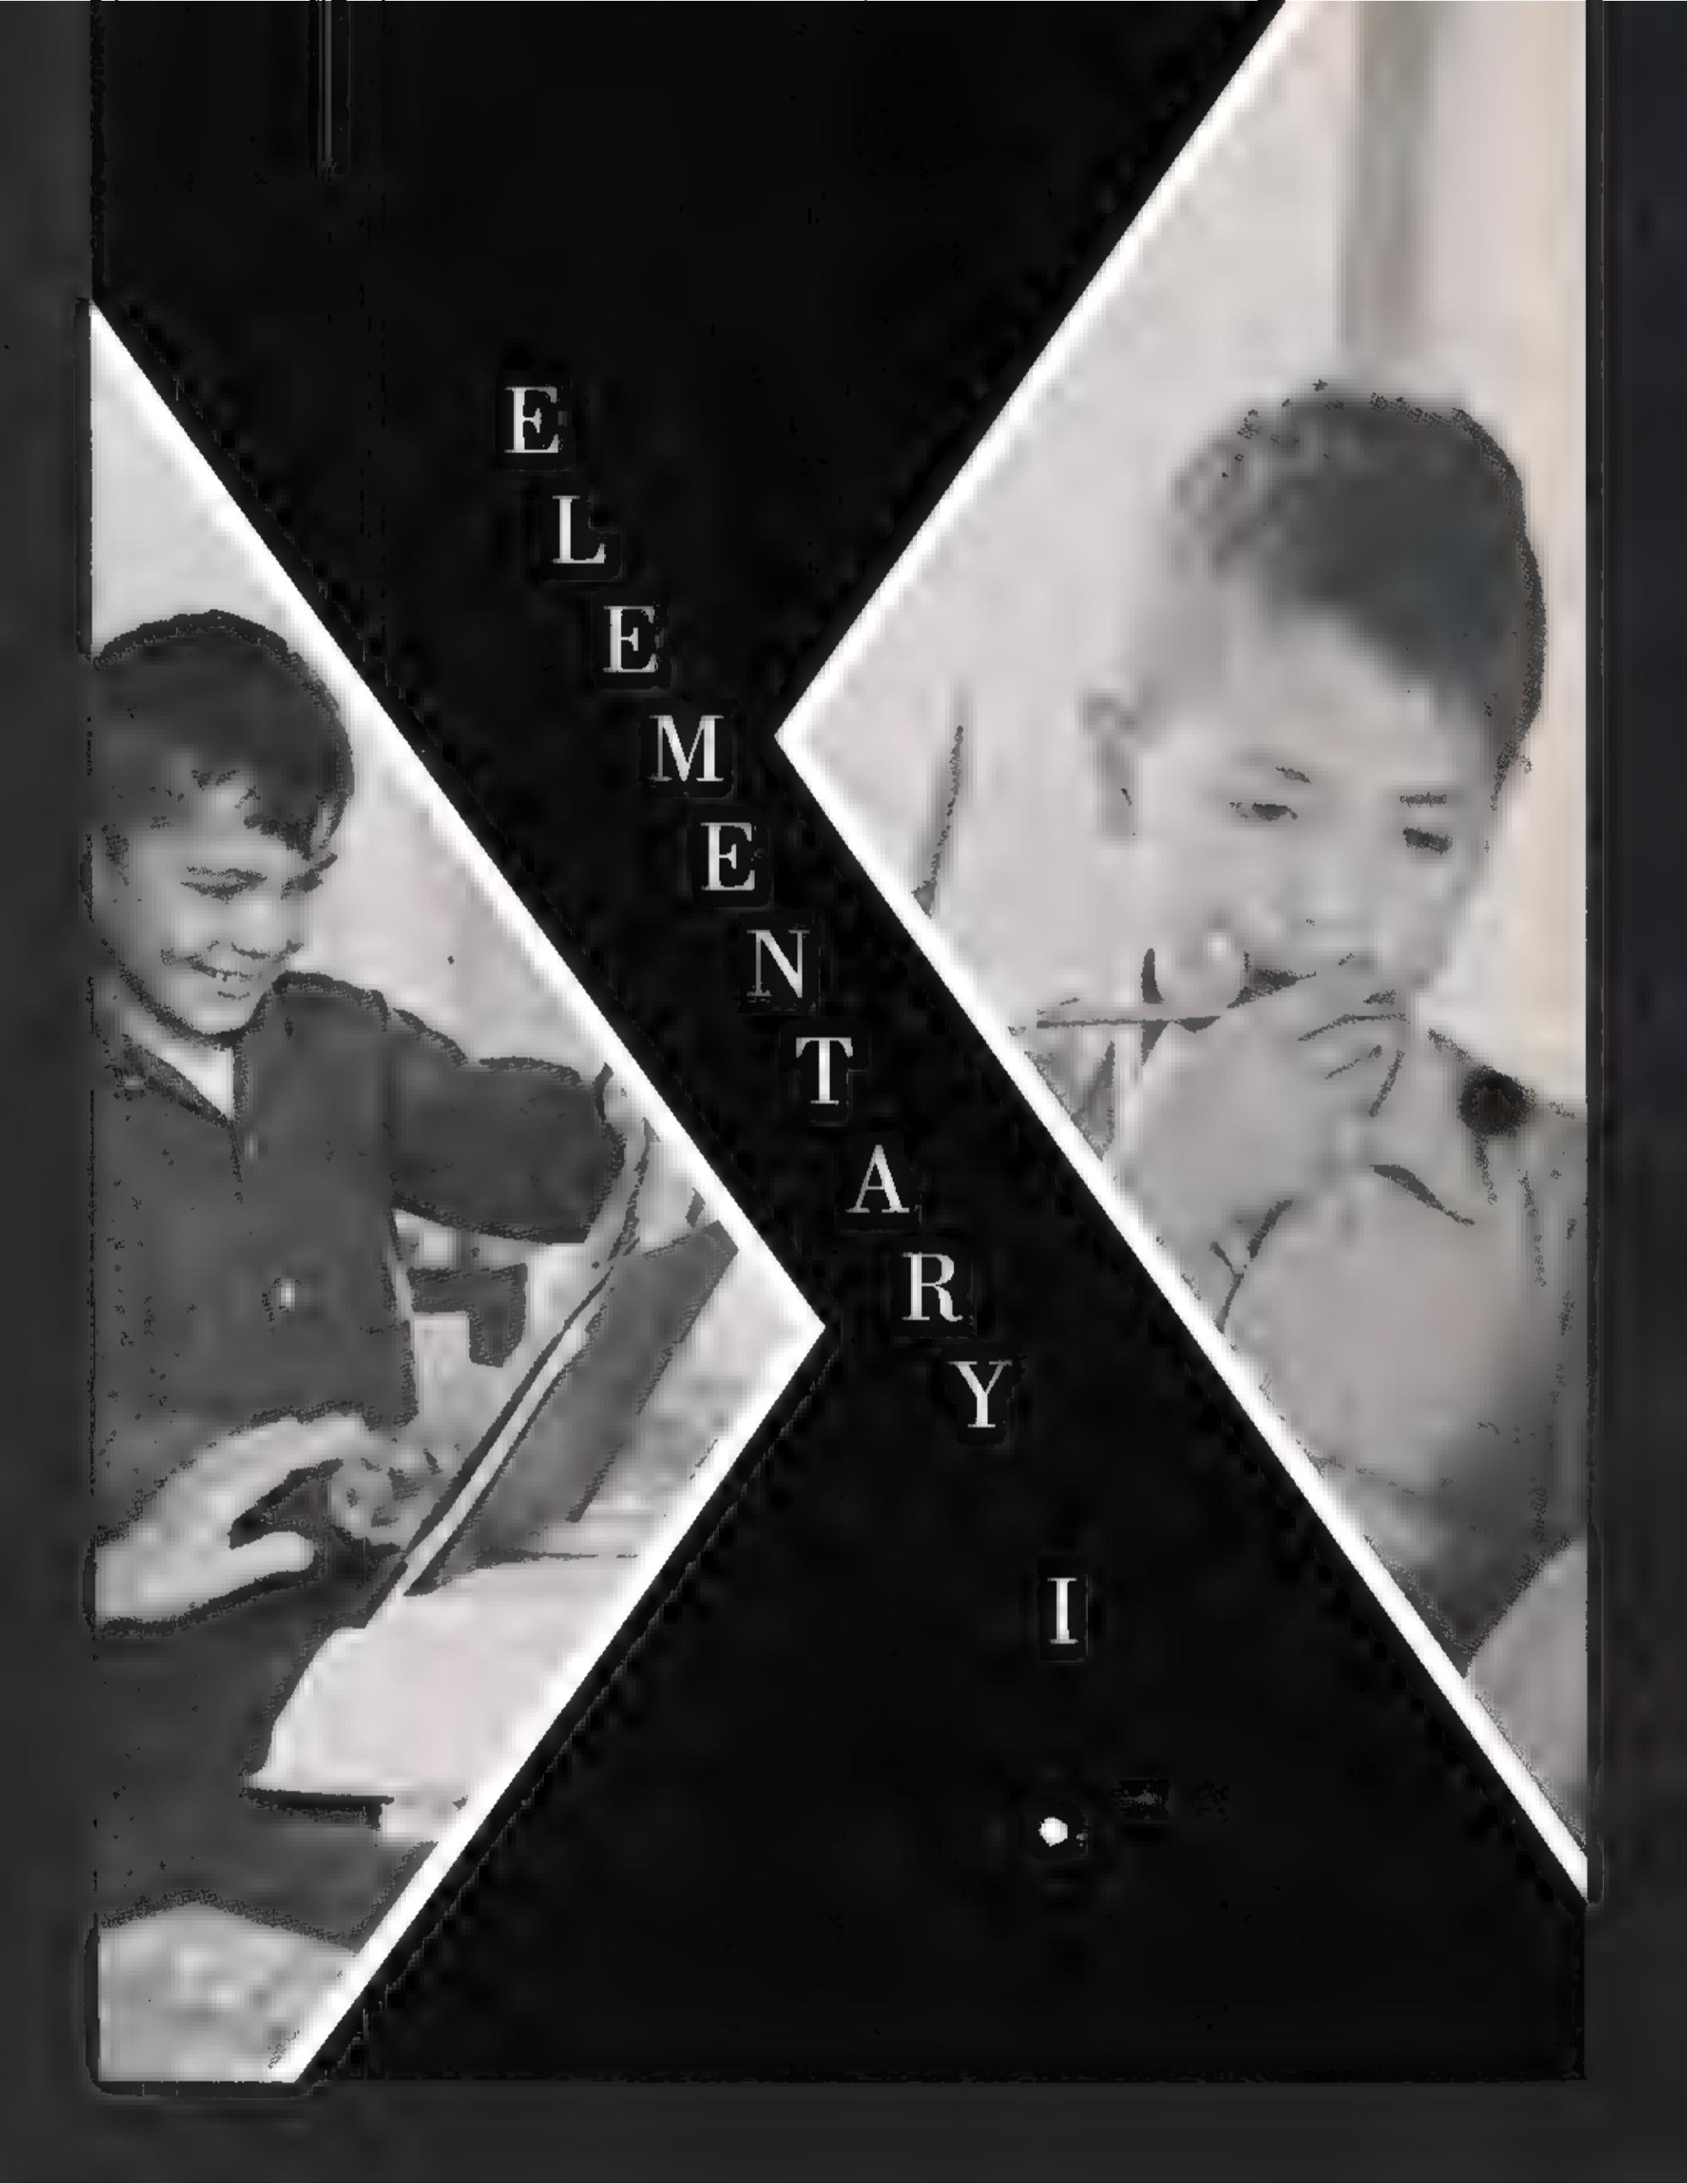

Elementary

Elementary I teachers spend much time in outside activities, helping the children express themselves in many ways. Mr. Patton, Miss Hoover and Mrs. Olsen enjoy their work with students, shown by these activity pictures.

MR. JIM P. COLLINS.

PRINCIPAL

One of the most influential administrative bodies for students and faculty at Southwest Elementary I is Mr. Jim P. Collins. His willing spirit and forthright attitude make no task too great to attempt.

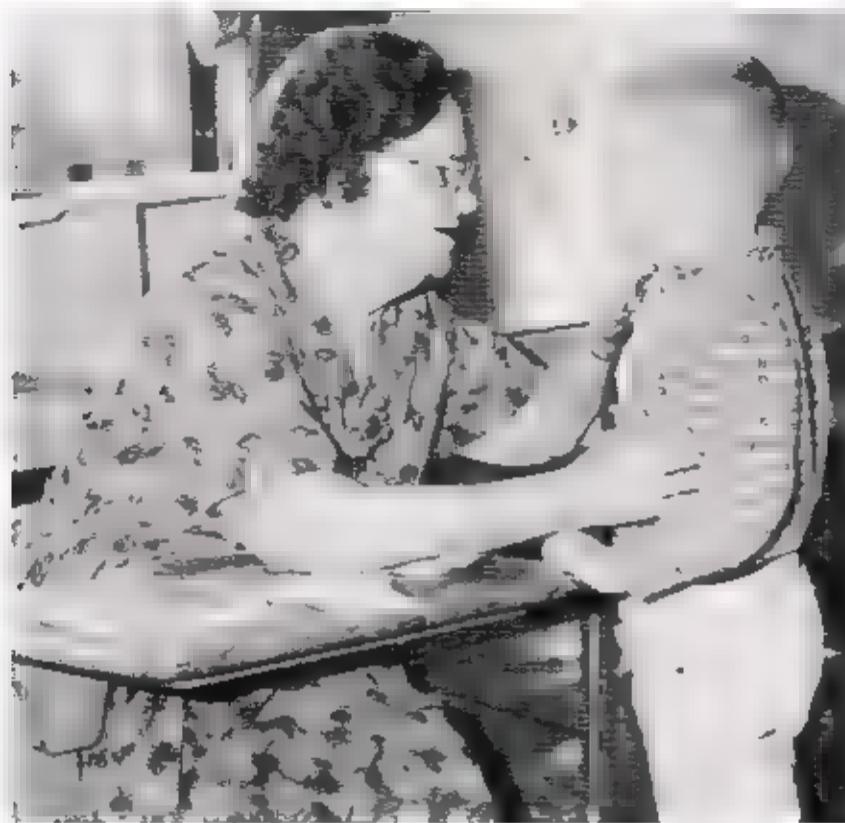

The students of Elementary I have a fine example in Mr. Collins. He is never too busy to help a student, assist a teacher, or discuss a problem with parents. We salute him as he completes his fourth year in our district.

A telephone conversation is a typical example of a busy day in the principal's office

Southwest Is Served by Efficient Personnel

Catering food is a necessary part of life, and lunch at Southwest has become more more enjoyable in the new Cafetorium used by the whole campus.

Cafeteria workers spend a great deal of time preparing delicious and attractive meals. They deserve much credit for the work they do so well.

Pictured above, L to R: Mrs. Rosie Tondre, Mrs. Virginia Wrasse, Mrs. Clementine Hansen, Mrs. Elvira Carter. Not pictured, Mrs. Theresa Shadrock.

Mrs. Ethel M. Ludwig, Title I Nurse.

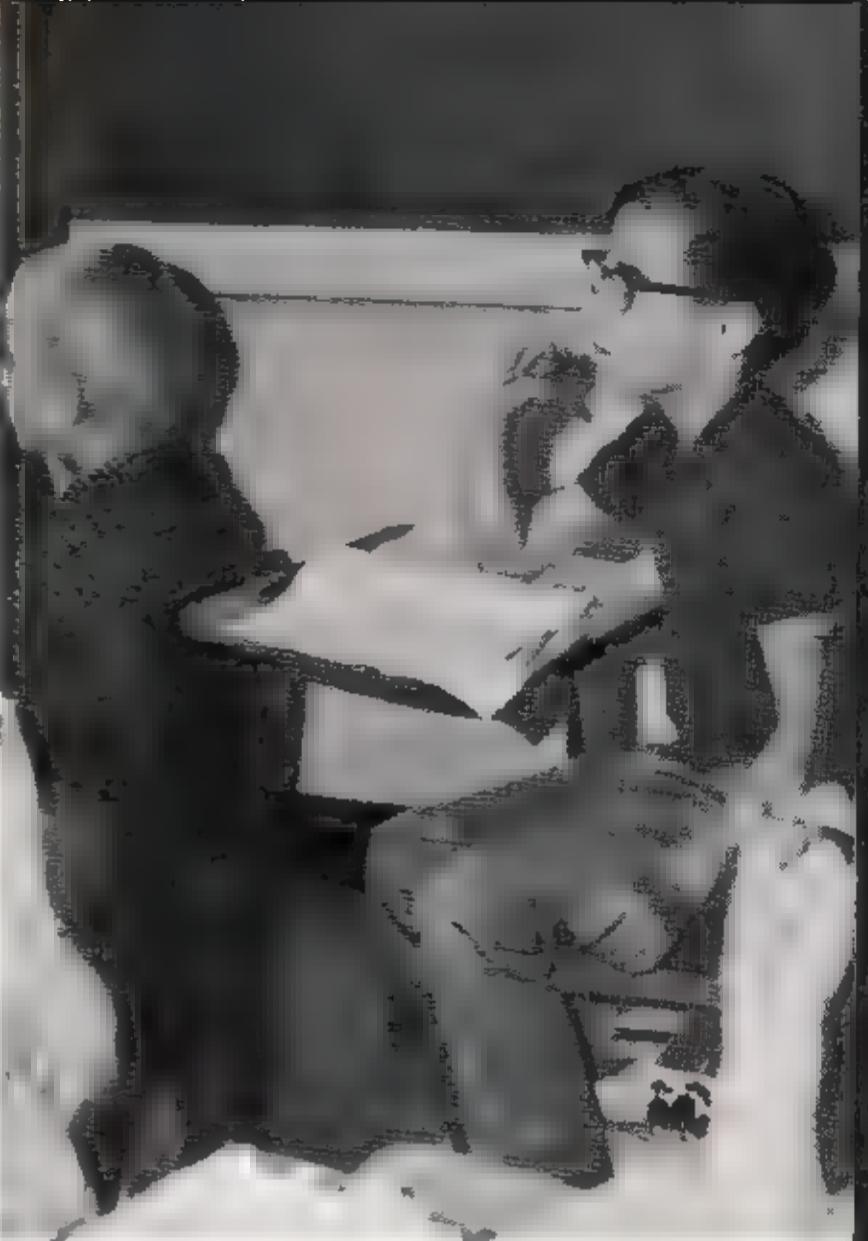

Mrs. June Donica, RN, Hendricks Memorial Hospital, Abilene, Texas.

Mrs. Thalia L. Norris, RN, Scott and White School of Nursing, Temple, Texas.

Capable, efficient and understanding are three adjectives which can easily describe our school nurses.

Being ill is never fun, but with the well-trained, sympathetic help of our nurses, life is much more bearable. Their service to our school has been invaluable.

Elementary II had a most profitable carnival on Halloween this year, under the sponsorship of the Parent Teacher's Club. Teachers, youngsters and their parents enjoyed a fun-filled evening. An atmosphere of intent interest is prevalent in the classrooms, as students observe and learn under the guidance of teachers and administrators.

.... The thunderstorm gathers, rambles by, flashing and electric, and is gone. Just so, the year passed -- lightning-like for those who became involved in it. And, as drops quivering on leaves and puddles shimmering in the sun are lone reminders of the former blaze and roaring chaos, so remain memories and memoirs of this year -- a fragment of crepe paper from a dance; the signature book from the prom; past themes; and, most of all, the yearbook.

In the coming years, many storms and showers will thunder by -- all cymbals and lightning -- but none can be so great as to erase those memories of this moment, this year -- and so, to you, take time from year to year to play with this shimmering pool -- AND REMEMBER.

... From Moment to Moment
